

6516205703.txt

XM radio is the best bang for the buck. We have thoroughly enjoyed having the satellite radio on trips. If we pay for the service what is the problem. It is our choice to decide what we listen to. The government has no right to control radio that is paid for by private funds and not available to those who don't subscribe.